Friday, April 2 (Day 01) HONOLULU - HANEDA

Our tour to Japan commences this morning when we assemble at the check-in lobby at the airport for baggage check-in procedures. We will depart Honolulu on Japan Airlines for Haneda International Airport. A meal and a snack will be served on board the flight.

Saturday, April 3 (Day 02) ARRIVE HANEDA (D)

We'll arrive Haneda Airport in the afternoon and after completing entry and customs formalities, we'll transfer to our hotel in Tokyo to spend the night. A welcome dinner is planned for you this evening.

Accommodations at SHINAGAWA PRINCE HOTEL or similar

Sunday, April 4 (Day 03) TOKYO - BULLET TRAIN TO NIIGATA (B)(D)

We'll transfer to board a local train to Tokyo Station for our shinkansen (bullet train) ride to Niigata, the largest city on the coast of the Japan Sea - noted as the gateway to Sado Island. Niigata is known throughout Japan for its high-quality rice and rice-related products, including fine quality sake. On arrival, we'll board our motor coach and embark on a brief sightseeing tour of the city. Enjoy shopping and lunch on your own at the Niigata Furusato Village Bazaar, a large complex offering a wide selection of local traditional food and craft products of Niigata, including the specialty of Niigata - sasa-dango (rice dumpling filled with sweet red bean paste). We'll visit the former residence of the Ito Family, now preserved as the Northern Culture Museum. The museum features an extensive art collection and within the peaceful garden complex are several relocated farmhouses, traditional earthen warehouses, and individual tea arbors. We will spend the night in the city of Niigata. Dinner will be provided for you this evening at the hotel.

Accommodations at HOTEL NIKKO NIIGATA or similar

Monday, April 5 (Day 04) NIIGATA - SADO ISLAND (B)(D)

This morning, we'll board a jetfoil from Niigata Port and cross the Japan Sea to Ryotsu Port on historic Sado-Ga-Shima (Sado Island). On arrival, we'll board our motorcoach and embark on a full day sightseeing tour on the island. Sado Island had an image of being remote and associated with political exiles and prisoners, yet has a distinguished history and culture all its own. Sado was the home in exile to historical figures such as ex-Emperor 'Juntoku', Buddhist priest 'Nichiren', and Noh drama master 'Zeami'. In addition to Noh drama, the island is famed for okesa (folk dances), ondeko (demon-drum dances) and the toki bird (Japanese-crested ibis). We'll visit the interesting Toki no Mori Koen (Toki Forest Park), a conservation park and museum to see crested ibis and also learn about the history of these endangered birds. We'll visit the Sado Rekishi Densetsukan (Sado Historical Folklore Museum) where the relics of Juntoku, Zeami, and Nichiren Shonin are exhibited, including robots illustrating dioramas of Sado Island's history. Enjoy a visit at the Hokusetsu Sake Brewery, a top sake brewery on Sado Island, famed as the sole supplier to the high-end Nobu chain of Japanese restaurants worldwide. At the Sado Kinzan Gold Mine in the town of Aikawa, we'll descend into the old mining cave to observe life-size moving mannequins dramatizing the tough existence of the miners in the past. We'll spend the night on Sado Island. Enjoy dinner and relax in the soothing hot springs this evening at our onsen hotel.

Accommodations at SADO RESORT HOTEL AZUMA or similar ♪

Tuesday, April 6 (Day 05) SADO ISLAND - NIIGATA - TSUBAME SANJO - NAGANO (B)(L)

We'll proceed to Ryotsu Port and board a large ferry back to Niigata Port on Honshu Island.

Tuesday, April 6 (Day 05) - continued

SADO ISLAND - NIIGATA - TSUBAME SANJO - NAGANO (B)(L)

On arrival, we'll board our motorcoach and travel to Tsubame Sanjo, noted as Japan's No. 1 metalware production region. We'll visit the Tsubame Sanjo Regional Industries Promotion Center, a large complex offering a wide selection of various metalware including some unique kitchenware products, knives, scissors and gardening tools. Our journey continues on to enjoy ohanami (cherry blossom viewing) on the grounds of Takada Castle. Although only the stone walls and fence of the castle remain today, the site was transformed into Takada Castle Park featuring thousands of cherry trees planted all around the park. Weather permitting, the cherry blossoms should be in bloom at this time of the year. We'll continue on to overnight in the city of Nagano, offering a beautiful view of the northern, central and southern ranges of the breathtaking Japan Alps. Dinner will be on your own this evening.

Accommodations at HOTEL METROPOLITAN NAGANO or similar

Wednesday, April 7 (Day 06)

NAGANO - TAKAYAMA (B)(D)

This morning, we'll visit Zenkoji Temple, one of the most important temples in Japan. The main hall is very nicely ornamented and contains various Buddhist statues. We'll continue on to Azumino and visit the Daio Wasabi (Japanese Horseradish) Farm, Japan's largest wasabi farm to see the production of this root. A nice selection of wasabi related products are available in the shops including wasabi-flavored ice cream. We'll drive through numerous mountain tunnels and enjoy breathtaking scenery as we travel to the quaint and traditional town of Takayama - tucked away between the mountains of the Japan Alps. On arrival, we'll visit the Yatai Kaikan (Takayama Festival Float Museum), a hall featuring four elaborately decorated festival floats that are several hundred years old and beautiful examples of Takayama's legendary craftsmanship. Enjoy a stroll through the shopping area at Kamisanno-machi, a quaint old-town district in Takayama preserved with traditional buildings, craft & souvenir shops, snack food stands and several sake shops. Enjoy dinner and relax in the soothing hot springs of our onsen resort in Takayama this evening.

Accommodations at TAKAYAMA GREEN HOTEL, TENRYOKAKU BUILDING or similar

Thursday, April 8 (Day 07)

TAKAYAMA - SHIRAKAWA GO - KANAZAWA (B)

Our journey continues on to visit the historic village of Shirakawa-go - famous for their traditional thatched roof gassho-zukuri farmhouses, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Many of them are now functioning as shops and small restaurants. Enjoy a stroll through Ogimachi Village, the main attraction of Shirakawa-go, featuring old farmhouses standing amid vegetable gardens and rice paddy fields. The farmland around the area continues to be operated by the local farmers. We'll continue on to Kanazawa, checking in for two nights. On arrival, we'll enjoy a leisure stroll through the streets of Higashi Chaya, one of the largest well-preserved district where geisha perform in tea houses. We'll spend two nights in Kanazawa, a historic city in Ishikawa Prefecture. Dinner will be on your own this evening.

Accommodations at DAIWA ROYNET HOTEL KANAZAWA MIYABI or similar

Friday, April 9 (Day 08)

KANAZAWA (B)

This morning we'll enjoy a leisure stroll through the main attraction of Kanazawa – Kenroku-en Garden, noted as one of Japan's three most beautiful gardens. The name Kenroku translates as 'combined six', referring to a renowned Chinese garden from the Sung Dynasty. The Kotojitoro Lantern, uniquely built with two legs, stands at the northern bank of Kasumigaike Pond and is an iconic symbol of the garden. Kanazawa is also noted for its gold-leaf production and we'll visit the Hakukokan Gold Leaf Museum to enjoy a hands-on activity to decorate a special craft item with gold leaf to take home as a souvenir. Dinner will be on your own this evening to try some local specialties of Kanazawa.

Accommodations at DAIWA ROYNET HOTEL KANAZAWA MIYABI or similar

Saturday, April 10 (Day 09)

KANAZAWA - TOJINBO - FUKUI - TSURUGA - MIYAZU (B)(D)

We'll continue our journey along the Sea of Japan to scenic Tojinbo - an impressive view of magnificent pillar-shaped rocks and basalt cliffs formed through the years by erosion from the sea waves. Standing gallantly against the raging waves, this scenic site is well-known for several folklore legends. We'll continue on to enjoy a relaxing drive on the Mikata-go-ko Rainbow Line, a scenic road leading up to the Mikata-go-ko (Five Lakes of Mikata), located in Wakasa Bay Quasi-National Park in Fukui Prefecture. A cable car or an individual chair lift will take us to the park and observatory on top of the mountain to enjoy this breathtaking view of the lakes and Wakasa Bay (weather permitting). Enjoy dinner and relax at our luxurious hot spring resort this evening in Miyazu.

Accommodations at MERCURE KYOTO MIYAZU RESORT & SPA or similar

Sunday, April 11 (Day 10)

MIYAZU - TOTTORI (B)(D)

We'll continue on to visit "Amanohashidate" (Bridge to Heaven), a pine-tree-covered sand bar resembling the shape of a bridge spanning across Miyazu Bay and is noted as one of Japan's three most scenic sights (Nihon Sankei). We'll proceed to Kasamatsu Park and board an individual chair lift or cable car to the top of the hillside to enjoy this spectacular view. To view the sand bar as a 'bridge to heaven', turn your back towards the bay, bend over, and view the incredible scenery from between your legs.

Sunday, April 11 (Day 10) - continued

MIYAZU - TOTTORI (B)(D)

We'll travel along the scenic San-in coast of the Japan Sea to spend the night in Tottori, one of the main cities in the San-in district. The Tottori Sakyu are the largest sand dunes in Japan, created as sand from the nearby Sendaigawa River washed out to sea and eventually re-deposited along the coast by the ocean's currents. As an option, you may want to walk up the dunes to the top to enjoy a breathtaking view. Dinner will be provided for you this evening at the hotel.

Accommodations at HOTEL NEW OTANI TOTTORI or similar

Monday, April 12 (Day 11)

TOTTORI - IZUMO - MATSUE (B)(D)

We'll travel along the coast of the Sea of Japan to the town of Izumo, home to Japan's oldest and largest Shinto Shrine - Izumo Taisha - constructed in the taisha-zukuri-style of architecture. The wooded grounds are pleasant to wander through and the shrine itself enjoys the 'borrowed scenery' of Yakumo Hill in the background. Okuninushi, whom the shrine is dedicated to, is the kami (Shinto Spirit God) of marriage. Hence, visitors to the shrine summon the deity by clapping their hands four times rather than the normal two - twice for themselves and twice for their partner. We'll continue on to spend the night in the city of Matsue, capital of Shimane prefecture, located at the eastern shores of Lake Shinji. We'll visit the Matsue Vogel Park, a paradise of flowers, plants, owls, and rare birds from all around the world. The park features a beautiful flower conservatory that is the largest in the world, displaying a variety of begonias, fuchsias and various other flowers in bloom all year round. A waterfowl aviary is also featured that is home to various aquatic birds and enjoy a special performance show featuring several trained owls. A delicious dinner will be provided for you this evening at our onsen hotel.

Accommodations at HOTEL MATSUNOYU or similar

Tuesday, April 13 (Day 12)

MATSUE - MIYAJIMA ISLAND - HIROSHIMA (B)(D)

Our journey continues on south to Miyajima-guchi Pier to board a ferry to Miyajima Island, famed for scenic Itsukushima-jinja, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. With a large torii gate in the sea, the shrine and the island's Mt. Misen-san as a backdrop, this scene is classified as one of Japan's three most scenic sights (Nihon Sankei). Enjoy strolling through Omotesando - the island's main shopping street featuring many shops offering a wide selection of souvenirs, including the specialties of the island: momiji manju (a maple-leaf-shaped cake filled with a variety of fillings), shakushi (wooden rice paddles), and fresh oysters. We'll leave the island by ferry and re-board our motorcoach to continue on to spend two nights in the city of Hiroshima. Dinner will be provided for you this evening.

Accommodations at ANA CROWNE PLAZA HOTEL HIROSHIMA or similar

Wednesday, April 14 (Day 13)

HIROSHIMA - OSHIMA ISLAND - HIROSHIMA (B)

We'll journey through Yanai City in Yamaguchi prefecture to Oshima Island, one of the largest islands in the Seto Naikai Strait. We'll visit the Museum of Japanese Emigration to Hawaii located in the town of Suo Oshima, the sister city of Kauai. The museum features an interesting video about Hawaii and its people, including photos, exhibits and artifacts of the hardships faced by the emigrants in Hawaii, the contributions made with the fortune accumulated through their efforts, and the history of cultural exchanges between the hometown and Hawaii up to now. Momiji Manju is noted as one of Hiroshima's most popular sweets. We'll travel to the town of Hatsukaichi and visit the Yamadaya Manju Factory & Shop where we'll view a short video to see the production of momiji manju. A large selection of these confectionaries with many varieties of fillings are available in the shop for purchase. Dinner will be on your own this evening to try some local specialties of Hiroshima.
